VESPA SEI GIORNI

Vespa Sei Giorni, a special version produced in limited edition, is the heir and namesake of the original Vespa Sport "Sei Giorni", a model that became a legend and was created specifically for the "Sei Giorni Internazionale di Varese" regularity competition of 1951. In that race Vespa swept to victory, the only Italian team to take the winner's title, proving its supremacy both on rough terrain and with a pure speed test.
